Margaret O'Kelley

I was most certainly amused this past week. It goes to show that you can find humor everywhere, even in the most stoic situation. Trustee Carey commented on the capability of the Huron River Weekly to spread the news throughout the area. As a matter of fact, she and another citizen of the community (one who regularly makes public comments concerning the HRW) finally agree on something, a three letter adjective that describes the HRW. It begins with the letter "r" and ends with the letter "g."

As I think about their adjective, those three letters may very well describe our point of view concerning Huron Township. As we constantly support the tree huggers, those who love ponds with fish, and those who cherish our rural character and a little breathing space between neighbors, we could very well be described as the R.A.G. (the Rural Agricultural Gazette).

Read an article this morning in the MEN reporting about a filling station in Huron Township that had increased the price of their gasoline 30 cents per gallon during our period of crisis. If that is true, shame on them.

Congratulations and thank you to all of those who went out of their way to be kind, courteous, considerate and helpful during the major blackout.

Summer Recreation Notes

The Huron Township Recreation Commission held their 8th annual Summer Recreation Program July 7th through July 18th. During the two week program, the 56 participants, children ages 7 to 14, created crafts, went to the Willow Metropark pool, attended three field trips, and practiced for the Detroit Metropolitan Youth Fitness Meet. The action packed two weeks included a boat ride on the Detroit River with the Diamond Jack's River Tours, a visit to the newly remodeled Greenfield Village, and a trip to Woodhaven

Bowling Alley and Flat Rock Dairy Queen. On the final Friday, the staff threw a pizza party and the children made fancy soap. I would like to extend a thank you to the many people involved that helped make this program successful, particularly the staff members, Cathy Ruffolo, Cara Laurain, Maeghan Lyons, Tonya Otter, and Kevin Johnston, Jr. We had a fantastic year and are looking forward to next year's program.

Youth Fitness

This summer, several children from Huron Township have been practicing their chinning, running, jumping and throwing abilities. They have been training for the Detroit Metropolitan Area Youth Fitness meet. This meet is an opportunity for the children of our community to compete against children from thirty-five surrounding communities.

In preparation for the meet, the athletes were divided into age groups. Class A is 13 and 14 year-olds, class B is 11 and 12 year-olds, class C is 9 and 10 year-olds, and class D is 7 and 8 year-olds. Next, the children were placed into one of seven possible events. Each child can participate in only one event, and each event can have only one boy and one girl from each age group entered into competition. The events are chinning, running long jump, standing broad jump, dashes, shuttle relay, softball throw, and agility run. After the events are chosen, the children practice their individual events until the day of the meet.

Thursday, July 24, 2003, was the day of the competition. From the moment the children stepped off of the bus at Metrobeach Metropark, they were being judged for two team awards, the Considine and the Spirit of the Games Award. The parade of champions began as the Olympic theme song was played. Cara Laurain, Maeghan Lyons, Tonya Otter, Kevin Johnston, Jr. and I began leading our athletes while the cheers from the parents encouraged everyone to smile. Following the parade, the children were released to their events. Our participants were class A: Jason Hecht, softball throw; class B: James Cook, running long jump; Ryan Juracek, softball throw; Joshua Otter, agility run; Rose Hobbins, dash; Jenna Proffitt, agility run; class C: Cal Jesko, dash; Ryan Knight, agility run; Klint Muse, running long jump; Sean Stachurski, softball throw; Lexie Juracek, running long jump; Shelbie Rose, chinning; class D: Tyler Hecht, agility run; Patrick Hobbins, dash; Dylan Laurain, softball; Samantha Lupro, agility; Samantha Mills, softball throw; and McKaila Rose, dash. During the competition, the determination and effort could be seen on each child's face.

At the conclusion of the meet, our athletes had received 5 top awards. Jimmy Cook received second place in the running long jump, Jenna Proffitt received third place in the agility run, Ryan Knight earned third place in the agility run, Tyler Hecht earned third place in the agility run, and Samantha Mills received third place in the softball throw. Great Job Athletes!

Following the meet, our athletes and their families enjoyed a picnic lunch. We then took advantage of the beautiful day and used the facilities available to us at Metrobeach. It was a wonderful day enjoyed by all. I would like to extend a special thanks to the staff, the athletes, Terri Pinter, the Recreation Commission, and all of the parents who helped at the meet.

Local Author, Kim Blaker, Has Book Signing

Local author, Kim Blaker, had a very successful book signing at Walden books in Monroe this past month. Throughout the evening there were customers at her table asking questions and discussing issues pinpointed in her book The Fundamentals of Extremism.

Her book appears to be doing well throughout the country as bookstores in both Minneapolis and Chicago sold out of their inventory before the signings and Ms. Blaker has numerous public solicited speaking engagements scheduled across the nation.

You may purchase a copy of her book by contacting Ms. Blaker at www.new-bostonbooks.com.

Tips from Tina

TIPS FROM A TO Z

FAN GRATE - Save the grate from your warm out fan and use it for a drying rack for your clothes that need to dry flat.

GARAGE DOOR - Always disconnect your automatic garage door opener when you leave for vacation.

HAIR RIBBONS - Quick and simple, iron the ribbon with the curling iron.

ICE CUBE GRANDE - When you need serious size ice cubes freeze them in a muffin tin. If you like place a cherry or mint leaf in each cube for decoration.

JELLY - When you have just a bit of jelly or jam left in the jar, add milk and shake vigorously and you'll have a delicious fruity shake.
